

R3

An inexpensive alternative to compression packings, the R3 is available in a variety of working lengths for each shaft size to accommodate different stuffing box depths.

Fast and Easy to Install

- Large single spring compensates for minor shaft misalignment.
- Hex drive design distributes torque during start-up creating a positive seal that withstands reverse pressure at shutdown and changes of pressure.
- Crimped carbon holder retains carbon faces during installation without adhesives.